

(J)
DM-348

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Friday, 29 October 1954

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Messrs. Wisner, Amory (part of Meeting), Colonel White (part of Meeting), Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Helms, Bissell, Sheldon and [redacted]

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

a. Noted an article in the current [redacted] by [redacted], and asked whether approval had been granted this employee to publish this piece. Messrs. Wisner and Helms stated they knew nothing about the matter and Mr. Helms undertook to determine whether [redacted] had received approval to write and publish the article in question in accordance with CIA Regulations.

25X1

b. Stated the notes furnished by [redacted] for his use at the NSC Meeting on 22 October had been prepared in nine copies, and noted his concern over the number of copies made of sensitive documents. The Director said wherever possible we should limit preparation of such documents to only one copy.

25X1

Mr. Amory:

Referred to a recent article in the NEW YORK TIMES respecting the "Soviet Encyclopedia" and expressed the opinion that the deletions and additions to this publication could be of considerable use in our psychological warfare program. Mr. Amory said a case in point was the deletion of Beria's name and the substitution of an inconsequential item. Mr. Wisner undertook to bring this to the attention of [redacted]

25X1

Mr. Wisner:

Briefly reported on his discussion with representatives of the Department of State respecting the agreement with [redacted] Mr. Wisner noted his intention of preparing a written report on this subject.

25X1

TOP SECRET